[illegible]

GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

MENACING BRITISH DESPATCH.

SINKING OF RUSSIAN SHIPS THREATENED.

STATEMENT BY THE PRIME MINISTER.

A SERIOUS QUESTION. PREMATURELY DEPRECATED.

LENGTHY CABINET MEETINGS.

THE MALACCA TO BE INTERCEPTED.

BY ADMIRAL DOMVILLE'S CRUISERS.

TURKEY PROMISES TO PREVENT VOLUNTEER STEAMERS' PASSAGE.

Persistent reports, which, however, are not authoritative, are in circulation that Russia has sent orders to the Volunteer Fleet cruiser St. Petersburg to release the P. and O. Company's steamer Malacca, which was taken as a prize on the 18th instant, and which yesterday left Port Said flying the Russian flag for either Cherbourg, the French naval station in the English Channel, or for Libau, on the Baltic, if no contraband of war is found aboard of her.

Mr. A. J. Balfour, the Prime Minister, however, speaking in the House of Commons at midnight last night stated that the Government had received no confirmation of such reports.

Mr. Balfour earlier in the night had stated that the Malacca had left Port Said in charge of a Russian crew, and that a most serious question had arisen which would necessitate a statement being made to the House before the approaching end of the session. It was undesirable to speak prematurely.

The Cabinet has held two prolonged meetings. Count Benckendorff, the Russian Ambassador to Great Britain, saw the Marquis of Lansdowne, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, yesterday, and while he was with the British Minister at the Foreign Office, Downing-street, a special messenger brought him a despatch from St. Petersburg.

The "Daily Telegraph" states that the Marquis of Lansdowne has informed Count Benckendorff, the Russian Minister for Foreign Affairs, that Great Britain will not permit merchantmen of the Volunteer Fleet to become armed cruisers after they pass the Dardanelles, and if they interfere with British vessels they will be sunk.

MALACCA TO BE INTERCEPTED.

BY BRITISH CRUISERS.

THE ADMIRAL'S PLANS.

LONDON, July 22.

The "Standard" states that Admiral Sir Compton Domville, the Commander-in-Chief of the British Mediterranean Squadron, is directing his cruisers to proceed to intercept the Malacca, which arrived at Port Said in charge of a Russian crew, and which is expected to be intercepted before she reaches Gibraltar.

THE SAILING OF THE MALACCA.

HER DESTINATION.

LONDON, July 21 (afternoon).

The P. and O. steamer Malacca, taken as a prize by the St. Petersburg, of the Russian Volunteer Fleet, which arrived at Port Said in charge of a Russian crew, has left that port.

It is believed that her destination is either Cherbourg, the French naval station in the Channel, or Libau, a Russian port in the Baltic.

HER VESSEL'S CARGO.

GREAT BRITAIN'S OFFER.

CAUSE OF HER CAPTURE.

A SPY'S REPORT.

LONDON, July 22.

The "Daily Telegraph" in a report, implies that Great Britain will consent to the Malacca being released at a neutral port if she is found to be carrying contraband of war.

The "Daily Express" states that the Russian Consul at Antwerp, M. H. Riehl, advised the loading of the Malacca, and gave a formal declaration that she had no contraband aboard shipped at that port.

He also stated that the Malacca was the agent of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company left behind.

It is reported that the spy informed Russia that the Malacca carried a quantity of an ingredient used in the manufacture of explosives consigned to Yokohama.

RUSSIAN PEOPLE'S MISTAKE.

LONDON, July 22.

Renter's correspondent at St. Petersburg reports that the Russian public, though excited, is disposed to believe that Great Britain is bluffing in making demands of Russia for the release of the Malacca.

EGYPT'S DEMAND.

RETURN OF NATIVE PILOTS.

LONDON, July 22.

The Egyptian Government has sent a message to the return of the native Red Sea pilots aboard the Petersburg and the Smolensk.

TURKEY'S UNDERTAKING.

PREVENTION OF PASSAGE.

LONDON, July 22.

The "Daily Telegraph" states that Turkey has undertaken to prevent the passage of such dual-classed ships as those of the Russian Volunteer Fleet through the Dardanelles, and if this regulation is enacted she undertakes to inform Great Britain of the occurrence.

REFERENCE TO ARBITRATION.

A RUSSIAN SUGGESTION.

LONDON, July 22.

According to Renter's correspondent at St. Petersburg it is uncertain whether the

Many of the great daily newspapers of New York and elsewhere are repudiating President Roosevelt, the Republican nominee, for Justice Parker, the Democratic nominee, in the Presidential election campaign.

THE WAR.

CONTINUOUS FIGHTING.

RUSSIANS OUTFLANKED.

JAPANESE MARCH ON MUKDEN.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK.

LONDON, July 22.

The correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph" at Mukden, cabling on the 19th instant, reported that there had been fierce fighting for two days, and the battle was still continuing.

The Japanese, who were in superior strength, especially in artillery, had attacked with great daring.

The Russians fought with great gallantry, but were outnumbered and retreated after suffering heavy losses.

The place of the battle has been centered in the telegram.

Moscow newspapers state that General Kuroki has driven in the left flank of General Kuropatkin, and is marching on Mukden.

AN AFFAIR OF OUTPOSTS.

General Kuropatkin reports that on the 21st instant sharpshooters and Cosacks attacked the Japanese post at Khudiana, near Hsiao-yuan, on the western side of the Mo-tien-lin, twenty-one of the Japanese were bayoneted.

RUSSIAN MISTAKES.

BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED.

LONDON, July 22.

A letter which reached the despatch from Tientsin from Nish-chang states that the commander of a Russian torpedo boat reports that he accidentally torpedoed a British steamer in the Gulf of Pechili. It is surmised that the vessel referred to is the "Hsiao-yuan," a steamer belonging to the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company.

Refugees from Port Arthur who have landed at Chifu, report that the Russians torpedoed a steamer in Pigeon Bay, on the opposite coast of the Kwangtung to Port Arthur, mistaking her in the fog for a Japanese ship.

The Russians tried to force the Chinese and one wounded foreigner were brought ashore.

Russian Foreign Office has replied to the despatch of the Marquis of Lansdowne regarding the seizure of the Malacca and the status of the Volunteer Fleet steamers, since details of the seizure are awaited.

There are some suggestions in the Russian capital that the matter should be referred to the Hague International Arbitration Tribunal.

The "Times" says that the status of the Volunteer Fleet might possibly be referred to the Hague Tribunal if Russia undertook to make no further seizures pending the decision of the tribunal, and if the Malacca were released.

GERMANY'S RETIRING MOOD.

LONDON, July 21.

The Berlin "Post" states that Germany is not anxious to adopt too conspicuous an attitude respecting the seizure of vessels by the Russian Volunteer Fleet.

The "Post" compares the German complaint with the British protest, and says that the isolated case of Germany can soon be satisfactorily settled.

COMMOION IN SYDNEY.

THE FLAGSHIP PREPARING FOR SEA.

TO COAL AT DAYLIGHT THIS MORNING.

LONDON, July 22.

Quite a commotion was created in naval circles late yesterday afternoon when it was expected order was issued by the Admiralty authorities to prepare H.M.S. Euryalus, the flagship on the Australian station, for sea at the earliest moment. All hands were instructed to get the ship ready for sailing, and the Euryalus last evening presented a scene of great activity. All arrangements were rapidly completed at daylight this morning, and sailing operations will be commenced, and continued without an interval until completed.

The Admiralty authorities, when spoken to, had no comment to make on the late commotion. The sensational developments of the past few days in connection with the war between Russia and Japan, and the unwelcome interference with British shipping interests, is the sole topic of conversation in naval circles.

The Euryalus, according to the original plan, was to have sailed from Sydney on a visit to Fiji on the 2nd prox. Arrangements had been made for coaling the flagship next week, and to-day was to have been devoted to cleaning the ship in readiness for the usual inspection by the public to-morrow. Suddenly, however, these orders have been countermanded, and the vessel will be closed to the public to-morrow. As a result of the order received, everyone connected with the navy is anxiously awaiting further developments.

It will be remembered that at a conference of commanders of naval stations, held last year at Aquila, about 18 miles from Singapore, a scheme was drafted under which, in the event of British ships being involved in war, the Australian, Chinese, and East Indian fleets will co-operate. Those present on that occasion were Vice-Admiral Pannhau, Commander-in-Chief on the Australian station, Vice-Admiral O'Byrne, Commander-in-Chief on the East India station.

The Union Company's steamer Whangape arrived yesterday from Westport, New Zealand, with a cargo of 1500 tons of coal for the use of the flagship on her trip to the Fiji group. On arrival the vessel berthed at Glebe Island, and will discharge her cargo into the Euryalus to-day. Naval officers, when seen last night, said that coaling operations were to be commenced at daylight to-day, because it was considered to be the best time for a longer time necessary. It is also stated that the island cruise of the Euryalus has been cancelled.

TO THE FRONT.

MODERN SIBERIA.

BETWEEN THE STAGES.

BY THE "HERALD'S" SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT, ANOUS HAMILTON.

THE MILITARY RAILWAY.

LONDON, July 22.

The order and regularity of the service, so observable in the long journey between Moscow and Lake Baikal, is no less evident in the Transsiberian section. Indeed, if consideration be given to the very difficult journey which is being made by the Russian transport authorities, the absence of confusion in the working efficiency of the line, and the despatch and arrival of the trains, it is a fact that the Russian railway is a masterpiece of modern engineering.

With no great a proportion of the entire run from Moscow to Harbin already satisfactorily accomplished, it is now possible for us to hazard a guess that my journey will be completed within sixteen days. It will be seen, therefore, that the reputation of the Transsiberian system for punctuality in the matter of its train service has suffered in no wise from the pressure which the war necessarily has brought upon it. In one small particular only, the suspension of the Moscow-Port Arthur express service, has there been any departure from the usual standard of the time-table. This is due to the fact that by the conventional daily train, and the ordinary complement of second, third, and fourth class wagons. Comfort may not be as good as in the past, but the service is maintained, and the train is kept running.

There are, of course, the troop-trains—long lumbering trains, each with a special compartment for the soldiers, and a special compartment for the baggage. These trains are running at a rapid pace, and the soldiers are kept in good order.

Many extra cars were added, and after the necessary rearrangement of the seats I found myself reduced to a third-class car with Chinese and Russian passengers. The presence of the military details was due to the fact that as far as Harbin passenger traffic is facilitated wherever it is possible to do so. From Harbin, the train goes to the front, and the soldiers are kept in good order.

MEN-OF-WAR IN THE FAR EAST.

Our correspondent at Hongkong, writing on July 2, says:—At the present time Hongkong Harbour is almost denuded of warships. Only a few British ships remain. The British fleet is almost denuded of warships. Only a few British ships remain.

COMMENTS ON THE SITUATION.

A great battle has been fought, and the land campaign becomes of absorbing interest. The Japanese are enveloping the Russian army after causing them great losses, and are forcing them to retreat. The Russian army is almost denuded of warships. Only a few British ships remain.

The "Times" says that the status of the Volunteer Fleet might possibly be referred to the Hague Tribunal if Russia undertook to make no further seizures pending the decision of the tribunal, and if the Malacca were released.

MILITARY FUNERAL SANCTIONED.

LONDON, July 22.

Mr. A. Lyttelton, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, announced in the House of Commons last night that the Government had decided to give representative institutions to the Transvaal next year. He did not mean to say that full self-government would be granted, but that the Government would be prepared to consider whether the Transvaal should be granted a representative institution.

MR. REID'S INDIGNMENT OF LABOUR GOVERNMENT'S CONDUCT.

LONDON, July 22.

Mr. G. H. Reid, M.P., returned to Sydney yesterday, after an absence in Melbourne of about three weeks, and he will be in Melbourne on Monday.

In an interview with a representative of the "Herald" he said:—"The principal matter which has been brought before the House of Representatives is the Arbitration Bill, and the way in which the measure has been amended since the Labour Government took office is a very striking proof of the alterity of the Labour party."

Mr. Reid said that the Labour party had been very much surprised by the amendments which have been made to the Arbitration Bill, and that the measure in its present state is one that can be accepted by any person who is in favour of the great reform which the bill represents.
